

12.10 FIRST DAY COVERS

BLUE MOON Kenneth Hinson

Cachet design based on Hinson's design for the Alamo stamp that was not accepted by the USPOD. One cachet is red, other two blue.

There are three date variants between 1836 and 1956. First cachet has a bar between the years; second has dashes before and after --March 6--; and third is blank space between dashes.

The stars-and-stripes flag is historically inaccurate as it did not fly over the Alamo.

Printed in extremely limited numbers—usually not more than ten for any one issue.

