

License to Publish Philatelic Manuscript, Exhibit, or Presentation Materials

The American Philatelic Society and American Philatelic Research Library may be publishing selected philatelic manuscripts, exhibits, or presentation materials, copies of which have been donated to the APS or APRL, on the APS website. The creator/author of the exhibit retains copyright in the exhibit or presentation materials (“the Work”) but provides the APS and APRL with a non-exclusive license to publish the Work under the terms and conditions of this agreement. This agreement does not guarantee that the APS or APRL will publish the Work.

I certify that I am the sole author and creator (or intellectual property rights owner) of the manuscript(s), exhibit(s), or presentation(s) and the owner of all the materials included therein, and have full power and right to grant the APS and APRL the right to reproduce and publish this Work.

I give and grant the APS and APRL a non-exclusive worldwide license to copy, produce, reproduce and publish this Work or any part of this exhibit or presentation materials online. I grant the APS and APRL permission to make digital copies of this Work and to preserve and publish the same in electronic, digital, and library reader formats.

The APS and APRL agree to provide acknowledgment of the creator/author as the creator of this Work.

- The Work may published after _____ (date).
- The Work may be published immediately.
