

My Stamp Story

Place stamps in the boxes below to create your own stamp story.

Once upon a time

man

went to visit

anything

and traveled by

transportation

It had been such a long time since his last visit.

The

building

was new and the tree or plant

had grown taller.

He promised, "I'll not stay away as long again."
He left a

thing

as a gift
and went home to

place
